HIGH COURT OF KARNATAKA AT BANGALORE

NOTIFICATION

No. HCLC.11/2003, Bangalore, Dated: 14th November 2003

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 34 of the Advocate's Act, 1961 and Article 225 of the Constitution of India read with Sections 122, 126 and 129 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act No. 5 of 1908) and all other powers enabling the High Court of Karnataka hereby makes and publishes the following draft rules for information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the said rules shall be taken into consideration immediately after 30 days from the date of publication of this Notification in Karnataka Gazette.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person in respect of the said draft by the High Court of Karnataka before the above specified period will be considered. Objections or suggestions may be addressed to the Registrar General, High Court of Karnataka, Bangalore-560 001.

DRAFT RULES

1. Title and commencement:- (1) These Rules may be called the conditions of practice of Advocates in Courts (Karnataka) Rules, 2003.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the official Gazette.

2. Conduct in Courts:- (1) The conduct of every Advocate towards court and the Presiding Officer shall be dignified and respectful.

(2) An advocate shall not misbehave in any manner in Court Hall or in any place in the Court premises.

(3) An advocate shall deal with the staff of the Court courteously.

3. It is the duty of every advocate to appear promptly in court on the date fixed and no advocate shall commit default in conducting the case in accordance with law on behalf of his client. Remaining absent from the court on the date fixed for the case, as a mark of protest or in respect of a demand for redressal of any grievance is considered as unethical interference with the administration of justice and a misconduct.

4. Forming of an unlawful group in court premises, shouting or addressing the Presiding Officer in a raised voice or shouting at a member of the staff or disturbing Court proceedings in any manner are prohibited and such acts are considered as mis-conduct.

5. Rioting in any form in the court premises is prohibited and is considered as mis-conduct.

Provided only in the rarest of rare cases where the dignity, integrity and independence of the Bar and/or the Bench are at stake, Courts may ignore (turn a blind eye) to a protest abstention from work for not more than one day. However, the decision whether the issue involves the dignity or integrity or independence of the Bar shall be taken by the Chief Justice or the District Judge, whenever such a plea is put forth by the President of the Bar Association and the decision so taken would be final and has to be abided by the Bar. If the decision so taken by the Chief Justice/District Judge, accords permission, the members of the Bar can protest by giving press statements, T.V. interviews, carrying out of court premises banners and/or placards, wearing black or white or any colour arm bands, peaceful protest marches outside and away from Court premises, without interrupting or disturbing the court proceedings.

6. (1) Whenever any incident of mis-conduct of the above nature by an advocate occurs in the court premises, the Presiding Officer of such Court or Presiding Judge of the Bench in case of occurance of incident of misconduct before the HIgh Court, on being satisfied above the allegation, may suspend the right of such advocate for a period of one month and shall intimate the fact to the Bar Council alongwith the recommendation, if any.

Provided that an opportunity shall be given to the advocate concerned to submit his say within 10 days from the date of order of suspension.

(2) On consideration of the explanation of the advocate concerned and taking into consideration any fact that may have come to the knowledge of the Presiding Officer/Presiding Judge regarding the incident, if the Presiding Officer/Presiding Judge comes to the conclusion that there was interference in administration of justice by the conduct of such advocate, he shall, bar such advocate from practising for such time as may be specified not exceeding six months in any District or High Court.

(3) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from the order of the Presiding Officer of any Subordinate Court and the decision of the High Court on the matter shall be final. However, where the order under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) has been passed by any Bench of the High Court, the appeal shall lie to the Chief Justice.

(4) The limitation for an appeal under sub-rule (3) shall be one month from the date of the order.

By Order of the High Court,

P.R. 1228

N. ANANDA

Registrar General.
